

Doofenshmirtz Evil Incorporated

Performance Review Policy — Version 1.0

1. Purpose

This policy explains how performance is reviewed at Doofenshmirtz Evil Incorporated, where success is measured in schemes attempted, not schemes completed, because otherwise nobody would ever get a raise.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all employees who have completed their first 90 days, including robots.

3. Review Cycle

3.1 Frequency. Performance reviews happen once per year, in December, when the CEO is in a festive and slightly less evil mood.

3.2 Self-Assessment. Employees write a one-page self-assessment. Self-assessments written as a monologue are accepted but read aloud at the review.

4. Rating Scale

Employees are rated on a five-point scale.

Rating	Meaning
5	Diabolical
4	Devious
3	Adequately Evil
2	Mildly Inconvenient
1	Helped the Platypus

A rating of 1 requires a follow-up meeting and a long, disappointed stare.

5. Raises

Employees rated 4 or 5 receive a raise of at least 3 percent. Employees rated 5 also get their name on the lobby's Wall of Infamy.

6. Acknowledgment

Receiving a review constitutes acknowledgment of this policy.
