Incident Report IR-0088 Self-Destruct Button Leaned On — Version 1.0

1. Summary

A visiting vendor leaned on the self-destruct button of the Weather-Control-inator during a sales pitch. The inator was destroyed and it rained indoors for 20 minutes.

2. Timeline

- 2:10 p.m. Vendor leans on the button while describing a discount
- 2:11 p.m. Inator destroyed, indoor rain begins
- 2:31 p.m. Rain stops, vendor offers a bigger discount

3. Root Cause

The self-destruct button had no confirmation step and was placed exactly at leaning height.

4. Corrective Actions

- 4.1 Confirmation Prompt. A confirmation prompt was added in Self-Destruct Button Policy 3.0.
- 4.2 Vendor Escort. Vendors are now escorted away from all inators.

5. Sign-Off

Reviewed by the Incident Commander and filed with Incident Response. A joke was included in the cover email, per HR Policy.
