

Doofenshmirtz Evil Incorporated

Nemesis Engagement Policy — Version 2.0

1. Purpose

Version 2.0 extends fight rules to the new rooftop garden, and limits the number of employees who may watch a fight.

2. Scope

This policy applies to every employee who may encounter the nemesis, which is all of them, usually on Tuesdays.

3. Etiquette

3.1 Greeting. When the nemesis arrives, the CEO greets it by full name and title. Employees may wave but should not offer a handshake, flipper-shake or snack.

3.2 Trapping. Only the CEO may trap the nemesis, usually right before a monologue. Employees who trap the nemesis by accident must release it and apologize.

4. Fighting

Fights with the nemesis must avoid the server room, the break room fridge, and the rooftop garden. No more than five employees may watch a fight, and none may sell tickets.

5. Aftermath

After the nemesis escapes, employees should shout a company-approved phrase of frustration, then return to work.

6. Acknowledgment

Being in the building on a Tuesday constitutes acknowledgment of this policy.